MICHELLE BUSER

@slayybeleldraws_2.0

Originally from the DMV, Michelle is a Brooklyn based artist who loves the freedom NYC ignites in her to explore and be herself! "I love the freedom NYC ignites in me - to explore and be myself. I love that it pushes me out of any comfort zone. The craziness and independence makes me feel more in touch with my true self. I love that you have to ad lib to make it through this place because I think, coming from a cautious family, it's good for me and I feel I discover and like more of who I am outside of that. NYC is always welcoming, all heart and no bs, all purpose and no waste. The New York minute is real - you never know what each day will bring and for me, that's what's addicting, exciting and inspiring." Inspired by moments such as joy, emotions and "facets of the human experience" Michelle was destined to be an artist from a young age and feels "to build or create something with my own hands is a gift." She is working to be a full-time artist and public figure in the art world.
