Tommy P. is a Culture Candy Artist from Harlem, New York City valid from Polo Grounds to Wilson Housing. He participated in our launch event, The Outdoor Art Gala, in 2020 and will now be featured in an art and dine at Gold Room BK. Tommy is a proud New Yorker, shouting his YERRR with pride, and admires the strength of New Yorkers "The only place where "What's good" is a peaceful greeting or threat. We are tough loving people who know everyone else secretly wants to be from here." When asked "Why Art?" Tommy responded, "I want to inspire, influence, and challenge people to see the world through a different lens, breakout of their comfort, feel seen, embrace their bodies and love being black." Inspired by the African American lifestyle "which is the blueprint", pop culture and black women, Tommy's goal is to "motivation for the next generation. I want to be someone's artistic ideal. I want to pump out high quality work that captivates all people and push them to unlock their own talents.

BEING A NEW YORKER IS CELEBRITY STATUS

"NYC is the only place a celebrity gets treated like a regular person, cuz we don't care bout ya clout."
