Donuts and Henny is an artist from Brooklyn, NY who paints #fortheculture. He loves the diversity of food and people NYC has to offer, including the many talents displayed here including "Artists, Muralists ,Graffiti Artists, Dancers, Street Dancers, Actors, comedians, entrepreneurs, chefs etc. " When asked "Why Art?" he responded "Art is healing to my soul. I just love how the conversation in color provides visual stimulation. Art is like a released message from a bottle once understood." Inspired by his family and community, Donuts and Henny paints through his emotions "I'm moved by raw emotions that I go through day to day. Thank God for giving me the ability to express my feelings through colorful vibes."

my heart and mind open to value love over negativity.
